JOB PRINTING of every variety at the lowest prices consistent with good work and quality of stock.

FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1891.

NOTICE.—Subscribers and others in resulting will please do so by Postal Note, Postal Order, Currency and Draft, using one and two-cent stamps for fractional parts of a dollar, if necessary. We have no use for stamps larger than two cents; checks on distant banks for small amounts are expensive to collect.

It seems that the bill providing for the establishment of a military station at Essex or Swanton Junction did not get through the House at the last session of Congress, so that the matter is at rest for the present.

President Harrison's capacity for making first-class speeches does not lessen as he proceeds on his journey. California gave him a most cordial welcome. On Wednesday he and his party were at Palo Alto, visiting Senator Stanford.

China declines to receive the much-speaking ex-Senator Blair as minister of the United States, and the administration still has him on its hands. The Chinese are not to be blamed, but this country is to be pitied for not having been able to get rid of him.

Secretary Proctor and State Auditor Powell have been looking up at Washington the matter of the claim against the State by the general government. They do not find as yet that there is any other way of settling the claim except by the intervention of Congress.

The dedication of the Bennington monument in August promises to be a great affair. Col. W. G. Veazey is to preside, ex-Minister E. J. Phelps of Burlington will give the oration, John Vance Cheney of San Francisco, a native of Vermont, is to have a poem, and the West Point cadets will take part in the parade.

Thanks to the efforts at tree-planting by the forefathers of this village, there is no call for the practical observance of Arbor-day here. But the idea of setting apart such a day is an excellent one, and it is to be hoped that the admonitions of the prose poet up at Hyde Park, who composed the proclamation printed last week, will be heeded.

Farmers generally might learn a lesson from merchants on the value of advertising. Some of them have "caught on," so to speak, and when they have anything of extra quality or unusual blood or merit to sell they tell their brother farmers about it through the papers. But very many of them never thought of employing printers' ink; they wait for chance purchasers, and frequently wait long and in vain, when they might just as well be rid of the produce or stock and have the money to use. This advice is not altogether disinterested, but we believe it is good, all the same.

Vermont cut quite a figure in the national Republican league convention at Cincinnati last week, where she was represented by Congressman Powers, Col. W. B. Wright of Orwell and other delegates. Congressman Powers replied to the address of welcome, and was invited and did present the name of Gen.
Clarkson for president of the league.
The delegation chose Hon. G. A. Davis of Windsor national vice-president for the State and H. S. Peck of Burlington was made member for Vermont of the national executive committee. Mr.
Peck is judge of the municipal court at Burlington.

Vermont is presently to have a boom like unto that which struck Fort Payne and the region thereabouts, or else there will be a big waste of effort and enthusiasm. A Bennington man would do it in this wise:

I would have a general fund contributed by the various counties, controlled by a committee chosen by such counties, who by excursions, advertisements in New York papers and circulars would boom their section to its fullest capacity.
Let our farmers clean up their premises, mend their fences and give their houses a new coat of paint. It costs little, but conveys an air of thrift and comfort to any stranger visitor. Stock our streams with fine trout; establish large though not costly summer hotels in convenient nooks, with first-class board and accommodation—no pate de fois gras or stewed terrapin, but nice meats, fresh eggs, butter and cream. City people appreciate such things, and are willing to pay any reasonable sum for them, too.

The Rutland Herald says a meeting will be held in Rutland next week Wednesday for the purpose of forming a new political party. T. L. Drury, master of the Knights of Labor of the State, is at the head of the movement and is expected that the Farmers' leagues will take a hand, too. This extract from the platform of the St. Louis convention is said to convey some notion of the principles which the organization will seek to further:

We believe in the doctrine of "equal rights" to all and special privileges to none. We demand that taxation, national or State, shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all revenues, national, State or country, shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government, economically and honestly administered.

CURRENT COMMENT.

His (Mr. Stewart's) experience in the lower house and his conceded high ability would make him a strong man in the Senate.—[Richford Gazette.]

Gov. Page was at Rutland Tuesday, "advising" with Secretary Proctor. The writings are not made yet, but possibly the bargain is. Haste makes waste.— [Hardwick Gazette.]

The outlook is that the Republicans will find it necessary to nominate Hon.
E. P. Colton of Irasburgh for governor, or else be compelled to antagonize him as the candidate of the farmers to their great discomfort.—[Montpelier Argus.]

The Middlebury Register attempts to prove in a well considered and logical editorial that what the public schools of the State need is not more money, but a more sensible and discreet application of that they already have. There is more than something in that.—[Hardwick Gazette.]

It was a distinguished honor to bestow upon Judge Powers of Vermont to invite him to respond to the address of welcome given the Republican national league at Cincinnati on Tuesday. He acquitted himself with great credit and was enthusiastically applauded. Vermonters may well be proud of their representative.—[St. Albans Messenger.]

According to the Hartford Courant, "the farmers all over New England are complaining of the scarcity of farm help this spring." This fact ought to be interesting to laborers who do not find employment in New York. The men who "help" on New England farms have healthy work, and they are sure to have wholesome food, besides which they get wages. The employers, moreover, are generally very good natured.—[New York Sun.]

Mr. Stewart's public record is worth noting at this time. He was representative eight years, speaker of the House four years, member of the State Senate two years, governor from 1870-1872, and member of the 18th, 19th and 20th Congresses. His public record is a most creditable one and we believe he will be a formidable candidate for Secretary Proctor to defeat. At any rate, keep your eye on Stewart.—[St. Johnsbury Caledonian.]

PERSONAL.

Mr. W. H. H. Murray, the noted expensive and writer, is moving his household effects from Burlington to the old homestead at Guilford, Conn., which he recently purchased.

Messrs. F. H. Farrington of Brandon and Charles A. Chapman of Ferrisburgh, who represented the Vermont Breeders' association at the national gathering of horse-breeders in Chicago last week, have returned to their homes.

The jar among the lady managers of the World's fair at Chicago, caused by gross irregularities in the management of the office of the secretary, has at last been settled by the displacement of Miss Phoebe Couzens and the election of Mrs.
Susan G. Cooke of Knoxville, Tenn., as secretary of the board of lady managers.
Mrs. Cooke formerly resided in Vermont, and has many friends in this locality who will be pleased to learn of her success.
Her father was the late Dr. George S.
Gale, for many years a resident of Bridgport, a surgeon in the First Vermont cavalry and in whose honor the G. A. R. post of that place is named.

A PITTSFORD MAN MISSING.

Edward Smith, 42, a prosperous farmer and fishing-rod manufacturer of Pittsford, and an ex-member of the Legislature, drove to Rutland, Thursday last week, intending to transact some business and stay over night with his brother-in-law.
The business was attended to, but his brother-in-law did not see him and he has been missing ever since. He had symptoms of the grip and had acted queerly for several days and is thought to have wandered away or committed suicide.
He was last seen in the depot at Rutland on Thursday evening.

MANUFACTURING FOR MIDDLEBURY.

The visiting committee of the local board of trade have done some traveling and a good deal of talking the past week for the purpose of persuading people to come to Middlebury and establish manufactures. One maker of reed work—baby carriages, toys, etc.—now doing business in a Massachusetts town and about to move to another place where he can get more room and increased facilities, partially promised to come up here and see what we have. Two men of means and successful business experience have been heard of who want to go into the manufacture of paper, and they are likely to come here next week and look over the town and its inducements.

—The best medium in New England in which to advertise for summer boarders is the Boston Transcript. Send for rates.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Damon, the clerk in Mr. Marshall's store, is down with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Buttolph of Rich-ville are guests at Mr. John L. Buttolph's.
Hon. John W. Stewart, Mrs. Stewart and Miss Steele came up from Boston on Friday morning last.

Mrs. A. P. Tupper, who has been out of health all winter, is seriously ill and has been for a week past.

Col. T. M. Chapman and family were in New York on Wednesday and were expected home last evening.

Hon. L. D. Eldridge started yesterday morning on an extended business trip through the South and West.

Mr. Wilbur C. Bingham, who lately bought an interest in a clothing business at Bristol, has moved his family to that village this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Buttolph arrived home from the South on Saturday morning. Mr. Buttolph's health appears to be entirely restored.

Miss Ada Brainerd has lately visited at her brother's, President Brainerd. She is to sail in a few days for Europe, where she will pass the summer.

Prof. and Mrs. Solon Albee, who have passed the winter with the latter's sister, Miss Parker, went to their home at Langdon, N. H., yesterday.

Mr. S. J. Preston, a graduate of the college in the class of '82, has been elected president of the Westchester County (N. Y.) Teachers' association.

Mr. J. E. Negus returned on Saturday morning from a trip to Boston. He has been laid up most of the time since with a severe attack of the grip, but is out again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Royce were called to St. Albans on Friday evening by intelligence of the death of his father, ex-Judge Royce. They had not returned yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Seaver, who preached at the Congregational church here during the winter, will supply the pulpit of the Pittsford Congregational church for four months, beginning May 1.

Hon. John W. Stewart, Judge Shale and W. H. Bliss, Esq., went up from here to the funeral of ex-Chief Justice Royce, at St. Albans on Tuesday. Mr.
Wills joined them at Burlington.

The Rutland Herald of Monday has the following item: "Charles H. Hyde of Higgins & Hyde, who has been seriously ill with the grip several days, is recovering, and will probably be out in a few days."

Dr. M. D. Smith got back from his trip to Texas on Sunday morning, but spent the early part of the week with friends in Addison, resuming work on Wednesday. He had an enjoyable journey and a first-class rest, which was what he most needed.

ADDITIONAL TRAINS.

It is reported that two new trains will be run daily on the Addison railroad after May 1, to connect at Leicester Junction with the New York and Montreal express trains.

The Manchester Journal hears that a new day express train from New York to Montreal, leaving New York at 9 a. m., and reaching the Canadian metropolis at 8 p. m. will be put on the route through Troy and Rutland about May 1.

MEN WHO HURT A TOWN.

All who oppose improvements.
Who never push their business.
All who distrust public-spirited men.
Men who envy their neighbors' prosperity.

Those who show no hospitality to its visitors.
Those who run down the town to strangers.

Men who oppose everything that does not originate with them.
Who find fault with all enterprises with which they are connected.

Who think all systems of theology except their own are erroneous.
Who refuse to subscribe towards building of schools and churches.

Men who wear long faces when strangers speak of locating in the town.

Who oppose every public enterprise that is not likely to be of pecuniary benefit to themselves.

Men who never subscribe, advertise in, or in any way patronize their county paper, and are always ready to find fault with everything it contains.—[Exchange.]

FISHERMEN Take Notice.

I have posted the so-called "Alder Brook"

Guardian Notice to Sell Real Estate.
STATE OF VERMONT—District of Addison, ss.

In Probate Court, held at Middlebury within and for said district, on the 20th day of April, A. D. 1891.

Orrel T. Severy, guardian of Eunot O.
Severy, makes application to said Court for license to sell the following described real estate of his said ward, to wit: The interest of his ward in the real estate owned by his grandfather, Jerome L. Shedd, late of Brandon, Connecticut, being one seventh of the home place and a lot containing acres in Brandon, aforesaid, representing that the sale thereof, for the purpose of paying the proceeds of such sale at interest or investing the same in stocks or real estate, would be beneficial to said ward. Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court, that said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate office in said Middlebury, on the 11th day of May, A. D. 1891, for hearing and decision thereon; and it is further ordered, that all persons interested be notified hereof, by publication of notice of said application and order thereon, three weeks successively in the Middlebury Register, published at Mid-dledbury, before said time of hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and, if they see cause, object thereto.

By the Court, 17

Attest, JAMES M. SLADE, Judge.
